'Golden Anniversary'
of

New Holland High School Graduations

New Holland High School
New Holland, Pennsylvania

Foreword

Fifty years have passed since this high school was founded by our forefathers who saw the necessity of providing the future generations with an institution where their knowledge could be furthered. The high school's fifty years of service to the community has prompted us to use the "Golden Anniversary" as our theme of the 1955 Leoninus. The discs which rise from our treasure chests symbolize the various phases of school life.

We, the editors of the Leoninus, wish to thank both the faculty members and all students who have contributed to the success of this venture.

—THE EDITORS

School History

The first school in New Holland was founded in 1786, by Rev. Frederick Melsheimer. This school was also said to have been the first "Free School" in Pennsylvania.

Dedication services for the first school were held on December 26, 1787.

In 1841 the Methodist Meeting House took the place of the early school-house, and also served as the school until 1875.

A new school building was erected in 1874. The present school building was completed in 1925, and in February, 1938, a two-story annex was dedicated, which made more effective teaching possible because of added space and facilities.

Dedication

Members of the fiftieth graduating class wish to dedicate this "Golden Anniversary" issue of the Leoninus to you, Mr. Brandau, because you have helped to guide us through four of our high school years.

Your keen business sense helped us over many of the "rough spots" as we struggled to maintain our budget and still fulfill our schedule of activities.

Your congenial manner and fine sense of humor, combined with your ability to make the classroom a pleasant place in which to study, have won you the friendship of those who have known you these years.

The dedication of this yearbook to you, Mr. Brandau, is our way of saying "thank you".

Appreciation

The Class of 1955 wishes to express its sincere gratitude to you, Mr. Sheaffer, for the guidance which you have given us, both as a teacher and senior advisor.

Your jovial manner, personality and understanding have enlightened many of our school hours. Although we may have been difficult at times, we hope we will be one of the more pleasant memories of your teaching career.

Many problems have faced us this year, but with your help we have successfully coped with them. We extend to you our heartfelt appreciation for your efforts in aiding us through this senior year.

Thelma joined our class in the Senior year, coming from Salisbury.

A roller skating fan, she frequently finds time to pursue her favorite sport.

Thelma hopes to continue teaching piano to her pupils after graduation and continue with music as a hobby.

Maxie Earl Talbot

September 19, 1936

"Max"

Chorus (4); Leoninus Business Staff (4); T.C.N. Circulation Manager (4)

Mischievous, clown, prankster—these are all adjectives that well describe Maxie.

It has been said by the commercial students that without Maxie, it is a dull day.

Extra-curricular activities were not on his agenda because working filled his after-school hours.

Although a member of the Naval Reserve, his plans for the future are indefinite.

Ronald Lewis Taylor

July 1, 1938

"Ronnie"

Basketball (1,2,3,4); Junior Play (3); Senior Play (4); Quill & Scroll (3,4); T.C.N. Editorial Staff (2,3,4); Leoninus Business Staff (4); Film Staff (2,3,4); Soccer (1,4); Baseball (1,2,3,4)

Though the youngest member of the graduating class, "Ronnie" is one of the top students scholastically.

Sports represent the main interest of his life and he participated in soccer, basketball and baseball while in school. Much of his spare time is spent working in his father's grocery store.

"Ronnie" plans to further his education at King's College, Delaware, where he will major in business administration.

Earls Welsh Tolin

January 30, 1938

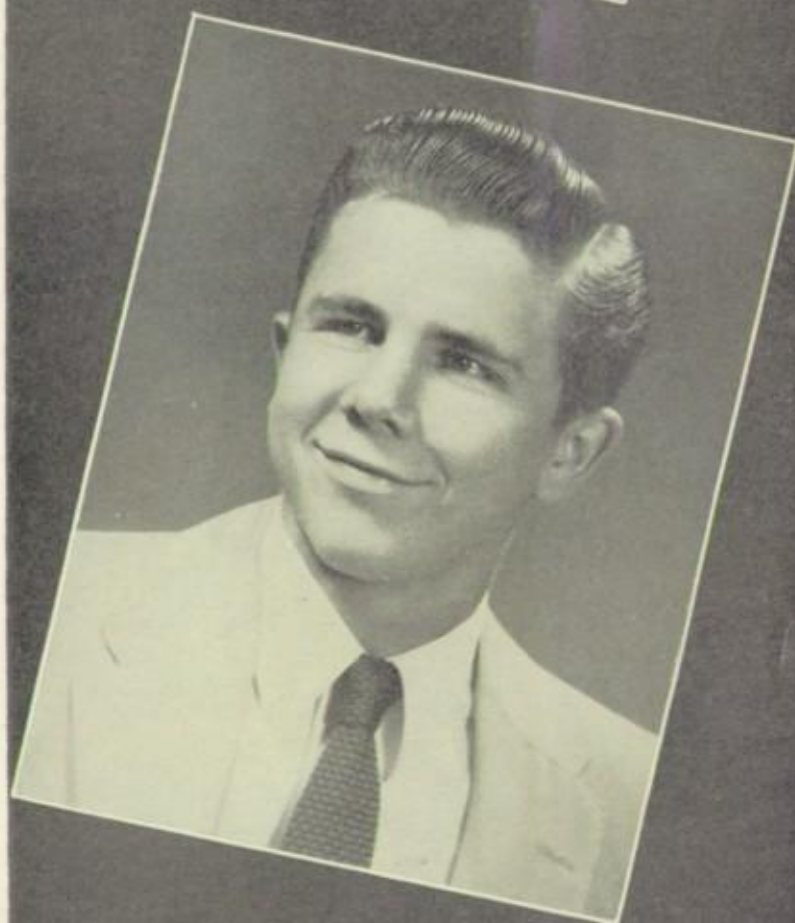

"Junie"

Basketball (1,2); Chorus (4); Junior Play (3); Leoninus Editorial Staff (4); Soccer (2,3,4); Baseball (1,2,3,4)

"Junie," one of the easy-going members of this class, joined our ranks from Lemoyne, Pennsylvania, in the seventh grade.

Hunting "Junie," you might see his sun-gold Chevrolet at the fire hall or find him home in bed. When there is work to be done, he is nowhere to be found.

Earls plans to enter Duke University with the object of being a pediatrician.

John Lightner Wagner

September 18, 1937

"Jack"

Chorus (4); Manager (1); Film Staff (3,4)

John is one of the 27 seniors who have climbed the entire twelve rungs of the educational ladder in the New Holland Schools.

As the son of our fire chief, "Jack" has a natural interest in firefighting. His daily habitat is the local fire hall.

"Jack" is not certain what he will do following graduation, but he may enter a school of pharmacy.

Edward Wakely

August 27, 1937

"Ed"

Patrol (1)

Quiet "Ed" is one true friend when you become acquainted with him.

Shy, yes, but not the wallflower variety, for "Ed" is always on hand when there is something to do.

Many of "Ed's" waking hours are spent trapping—always up early in the morning to go look what he caught.

Although "Ed's" future is uncertain, he'll most likely be working for Uncle Sam.

Phyllis Loree Weber

May 3, 1936

"Phil"

Basketball (2); Hockey (3,4); Band (4); Chorus (2,3,4); Patrol (3); Junior Play (3); Leoninus Editorial Staff (4); Cheerleading (1,2,3,4); Hockey Co-Captain (4)

With her attractive eyes and peppy personality, "Phil" added much color to the Class of '55.

"Phil" participated in many varied activities where her helping hand could be traced.

When our teams needed cheering from the sidelines, we depended upon Phyllis, who displayed her enthusiasm as a cheerleader.

Teaching the three "R's" to eager faced Jacks and Jills is Phyllis' goal and she will enter Millersville State Teachers College in the fall.

Ellen Elizabeth Wenger

March 23, 1937

"Ellen"

Salisbury: Band (2,3); Chorus (1,2,3); Senior Play (3); Baseball (1,2,3)

New Holland: Band (4); Chorus (4)

Though Ellen was with us only one year, her sweet personality and friendly smile immediately won the hearts of her classmates.

Music is one of Ellen's main interests and a great deal of her spare time is spent playing clarinet with the "Blue Notes" Orchestra.

A commercial student in school, Ellen plans to study to become a beautician after graduation.

Jerrold Rex West

April 13, 1937

"Spears"

Tennis (3); Basketball (2,3,4); Senior Play (4)

Hailing from the "Hawkeye" state of Iowa, this lanky six footer entered New Holland High School in grade seven. Through the years his quiet but pleasant manner has won him the friendship of all his classmates.

"Jerry's" favorite sport is basketball, and his height was an asset to him as he participated on the varsity team.

"Jerry" looks forward to attending Drexel Institute of Technology to study engineering, his chosen vocation.

Thomas Martin Witman

March 16, 1937

"Tom"

Baseball (1,2,3,4); Basketball (1,2,3,4); Soccer (3,4)

A sly grin is always the clue that tells you "Tom" is enjoying another one of his practical jokes. His subtle sense of humor has made him a pleasant fellow to be around.

Sports claim most of "Tom's" interest and time. Although basketball is his favorite, he also played soccer and baseball during his school days.

After graduation "Tom" has no definite plans in view as to what field he will enter, but our best wishes will follow him in anything he undertakes.

John Lester Witwer

October 7, 1937

"Johnny"

Basketball (3); Baseball (1,2,3,4); Soccer (1,2,3,4);
Leoninus Business Staff

Four long years ago Lester made his first appearance in the halls of our Alma Mater, bringing with him a congenial and pleasant manner.

Lester has a willingness to work, and he never fails to "pitch in" when there is a job to be finished.

Lester's plans for the future include attending Pennsylvania State University where he will major in civil engineering.

Junior-Senior Reception of 1954

Theme: 'Make Believe'

Class History

Under the guidance of Miss Maria Bender and Mrs. Helene Weaver, the present Class of 1955 began their school life. Because the class was so large, it was necessary to divide it into two sections which these two teachers taught.

Mrs. Helene Weaver taught some of us for the first five years. Miss Suie Zimmerman, the late Mrs. Kathryn Overly, Miss Mary Harsh and Mrs. Anna Diller were the teachers of the larger sections of our class.

For the first time, we were all together in sixth grade with Miss Helen Fenninger as our teacher.

In the fall of 1949, the class entered seventh grade. Very different from grade school, we quickly adjusted ourselves to the complicated life of Junior High School.

Larry Evans led our class as president in the seventh grade. Vice president was Vernon Ream, while Robert Aungst served as secretary-treasurer. A party at the Community Park was our activity of the year. Mrs. Caroline Weber was our advisor.

Our class was again divided into two sections in eighth grade with Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Miriam Kneller as our counsellors. A swimming party and a trip to Hershey Park were our activities of the year. Our president this year was Larry Evans. Vice president was Thomas Witman, and secretary-treasurer, Robert Aungst.

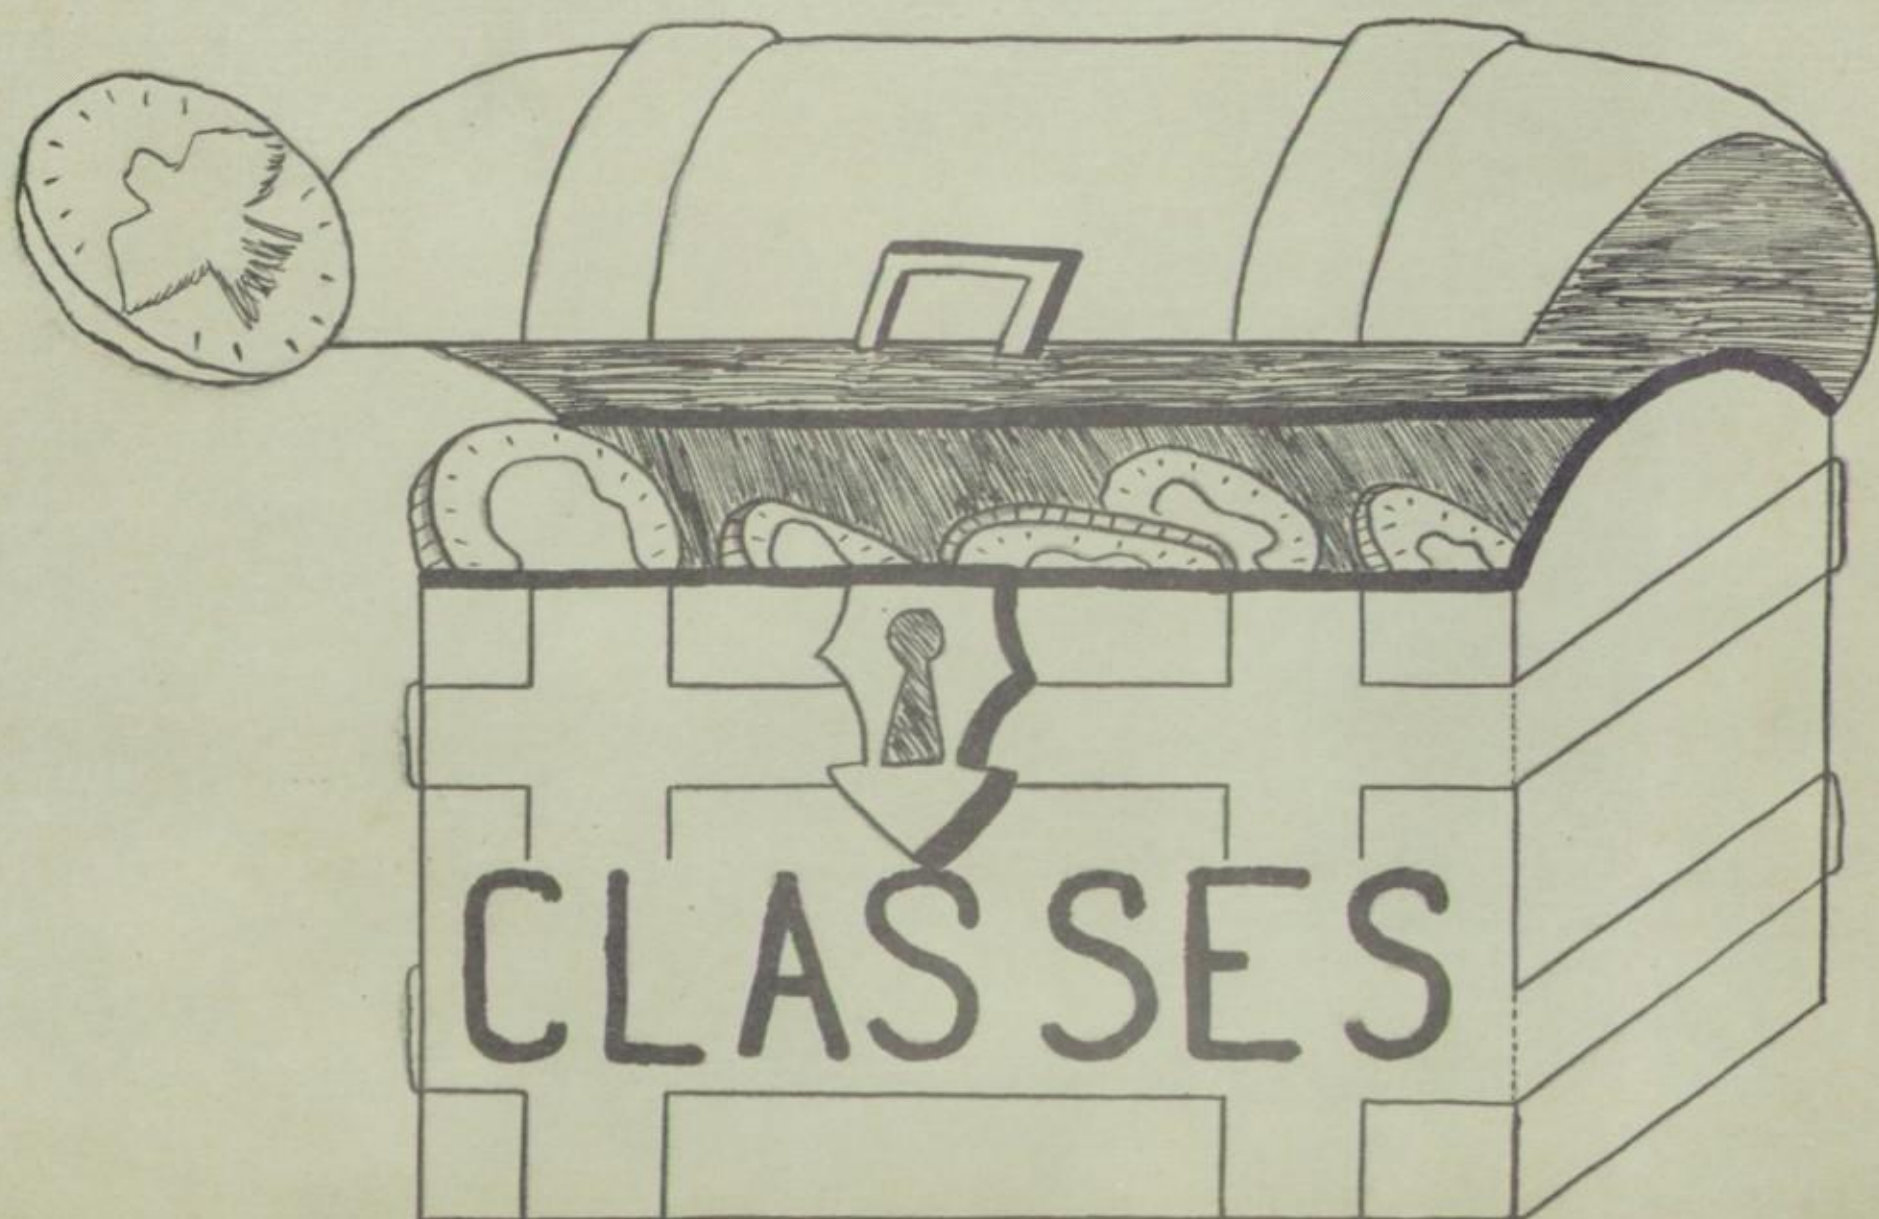

In our freshman year we elected Sandra Spotts as our president. Serving as our other officers were Patricia Ranck, vice president; Sylvia Ruoss, secretary, and Ferne Grubb, treasurer. Mr. Roy Brandau and Mrs. Ruth Gantos were the homeroom teachers.

A trip to Hershey to see a hockey game between Hershey and Providence was our social function in our sophomore year. Our officers were as follows: John Flora, president; Patricia Ranck, vice president; Sylvia Ruoss, secretary, and Ferne Grubb, treasurer. The advisors were again Mr. Brandau and Mrs. Gantos.

As Juniors we chose our class colors of red and white. We also bought our red and white school jackets, and proudly wore our school rings. As president we elected John Flora. Others elected were Gene Lowry, vice president; Sylvia Ruoss, secretary, and Carol Duck, treasurer.

The Junior-Senior Reception was the highlight of our junior year. It was held April 30. Our theme was "Make-Believe". The Junior play, "Babies' Night Out," was presented on April 2. This afforded all of us the opportunity for plenty of work as members of the cast or serving on committees. Our play was ably directed by Mrs. Mary Bear.

Mr. Brandau and Mr. Donald Sheaffer were our advisors in our senior year. We elected the following officers: Richard Dommel, president; Gene Lowry, vice president; Sylvia Ruoss, secretary, and Marie Kutz, treasurer. As our class flower we selected a white carnation with a red tinge. "Happy is the man that findeth wisdom" was voted our class motto. The Senior play was given on November 17 and 18 with Mr. Scott Garman as director. We also sold refreshments at the Farm Show in order to finance our long-awaited trip to Washington.

In order to provide the students with a governing body, based on democratic principles, as an instrument combining the efforts of the students and faculty, to be achieved by closer cooperation and by giving the school citizen an opportunity to exercise his democratic rights and guarantee his privileges, the Student Council of New Holland was organized and a constitution established. Students from every class in the Junior and Senior High School represent the Council with a total of 25 members. Heading this year's Council is Gene Lowry as President, with Russel Etter, Vice President, and Brenda Sheaffer and Ken Shupp filling the offices of Secretary and Treasurer, respectively. Being a member of the state and national Student Council organizations, our Student Council sends representatives to state, and district conventions as well as to county conventions.

From October 14 to 16, Russel Etter and Gene Lowry, along with Mr. Scott Garman, a sponsor, attended the State Convention at the Abington High School, Abington, Pennsylvania. On February 23, Gene Lowry, Richard Dommel, Joan Lowry, Russel Etter, and Miss Troxell, our sponsor, attended the County Convention at the Upper Leacock High School. On April 1, Gene Lowry, Larry Evans, Richard Dommel, Russel Etter, and Miss Elizabeth Troxell attended the District Convention, at Waynesboro, Pa.

The Student Council was successful in purchasing a public address system which is now in use in our high school auditorium. Uniforms were purchased for the hockey team and cheerleaders, and sweat suits for the soccer team. New flag stands were made and donated to the Student Council for the stage flags, while a new all-weather flag was purchased for the flagpole in front of the high school.

The sponsoring of three school dances by the Student Council was once again part of its curriculum. Book covers in the school colors, with the school emblems were purchased and were sold by the Council.

Revision of the Student Council Constitution, was part of the work done by the Council. Some amendments were made to the procedure of our election method introduced four years previously, to increase representation to the Council; and added were a set of By-Laws which include such things as: Student Council award system, use of the crystal ball and public address system for other organizations, the paying of all sport, scholastic, and activity awards from the school fund, and the approval of a standardized high school ring.

Your Student Council is open for suggestions at any time, either through your homeroom representatives or by placing them in the suggestion box in the front hall.

Robert Jacoby, Judy Coy, Joan Lowry and Charles Miller reach for the diploma extended by Mr. John T. Auld, Supervising Principal.

Whose Diploma Is it?

Your diploma? Not entirely? An army of friends stood behind you and your efforts to win it. High school principals and teachers, your families, school board and Parent-Teacher Association members, taxpayers . . . all these people have given time, money and effort because they wanted to see you mark this occasion.

At New Holland Machine Company we call this kind of cooperation teamwork. And we try to practice the same policy by one department working hand-in-hand with another to turn out better machines for our customers.

Your friends at New Holland want to congratulate you on the good work you did. We hope the success and happiness you know today are only part of what you'll always enjoy.
